Packworks values

We pride ourselves on working closely with our customers to develop strong and trusting business relationships. Holding trust and client confidence as an imperative part of our business. In our many years of dealing with supermarkets, delicatessens, butchers etc., we are confident any manager or store owner would vouch for our level of service, expertise and quality of our products.

Company Background

Our story began in 2012 when we got the opportunity to start Packworks by using the knowledge we have gathered over our 30 years of experience in the industry. We are a family owned, forward looking Irish company who believe in the personal touch when dealing with customers. Our focus is on supplying high quality products and packaging solutions to our customers.

At Packworks we have expanded year on year and have grown into one of the leading suppliers of high quality and bespoke products for the meat, fish, and catering industries with our core focus on customer service and positive client relationships.

Packworks Market

Our market comprises of independent butchers, fishmongers, bakers, supermarkets, meat processors, wholesalers, restaurants and hotels throughout Ireland.

Our customer base include Rosderra Irish Meat Group, Dawn Meats, Michael Carr Foods, Waldron Meats, Kelly's of Newport, Lundy Foods, Joyces Supermarket Group, James Whelan Butchers, Tormey Meats and many more.

“We developed a great partnership with PACKWORKS and their dedication to supplying high quality products. We appreciate their attention to detail and the personal service they provide.”

Why our clients choose us

At Packworks we get a great satisfaction from building stable client relationships. As a small Irish team we work with our clients to deliver the best products along with the best deals for them. Even as our business grows we intend to maintain our existing model of dealing directly face to face with our clients creating transparency and trust.

We are also determined to continuously expand our collection into more eco friendly products like our eco friendly packaging and our compostable food bags.

New product Development for a greener future!

Eco Packaging

At Packworks we want to take action against everchanging environmental issues and enforce change one customer at a time. We have decided to take our own action through the development of new food grade biodegradable compostable wax paper. This paper is used for wrapping all food items including raw and cooked meats, fish, cheeses and many more food items. This paper is used for wrapping all food items including cooked meats, sandwiches, cheeses and many more food items.

Part of the Packworks range includes our very own eco friendly Packworks wax paper which offers excellent grease and moisture properties, is convenient to use and is supplied in rolls with a dispenser that can be wall mounted or for counter use. We also offer custom printing for our clients to add their own branding on request. The roll option allows you to judge the amount of paper required for wrapping the food item thus reducing paper wastage and is extremely convenient to use.

Packworks have also developed:

- 100% Compostable resealable food bag for all food departments.
- Paper Bags all sizes available
- Compostable Food Trays
- Recyclable Aluminium Trays
- Compostable Carrier Bags
- BioDegradable Carrier Bags
- Wide Bottom Takeaway Paper Carrier Bags (specifically designed for takeaway dinners)

Pack it perfectly!
